

Rites for Mrs. Wolfe Set Friday

Funeral services for Mrs. Leila Leota Wolfe, who died in Lomita yesterday, will be held Friday at 10 a.m. in the McMillan Mortuary Chapel in Gardena. Mrs. Wolfe was 70.

She resided at 3366 Empty Saddle Lane, Rolling Hills. Mrs. Wolfe had lived in the Los Angeles area for 40 years.

Mrs. Wolfe is survived by a son, Vernon R. of Rolling Hills, head track and field coach at the University of Southern California and a former Torrance High coach; a daughter, Mrs. Gilbert Gray of Norwalk; a brother, John Hayes of Long Beach, and five grandchildren.

Interment will be in Roosevelt Memorial Park.

Police Say Hot Pilot Buzzed Them

A low flying airplane dived on two police cars Monday morning at Torrance beach. The pilot, who denied the incident, was arrested later at Torrance airport on a charge of reckless and drunken operation of an aircraft.

Arrested was Don Harlan Beal, 23, of 2273 W. 142nd St., Lomita. Police Sgt. Tom Pattishall said he was in the Torrance beach area about 1:45 a.m. when he saw a blue Cessna airplane descending onto the beach.

The aircraft disappeared below the bank and appeared to have landed on the beach but a short time later he saw the airplane raise up from the beach and circle out over the water.

HOWARD H. LEWELLYN
Graveside services for Howard Hopni Lewellyn, 71, of 1639 1/2 Cabrillo Ave., will be held at 1 p.m. tomorrow at Inglewood Park Cemetery. The Rev. C. Lee Mills, pastor of Christ Church Episcopal in Redondo Beach, will officiate.

Mr. Lewellyn, a resident of Torrance for the past 18 years, died in Downey Monday. He was a retired carpenter.

SGT. PATTISHALL was joined by a police unit from Redondo Beach when the two officers saw the airplane fly over the beach with its landing lights flooding the beach area. The airplane passed directly over the officers at an altitude of about 60 feet.

Officers obtained a partial serial number of the airplane by using the spotlights on the police cars.

On another pass the airplane came directly down toward the police cars and pulled up at about 75 to 100 feet above the cars, police said. The aircraft finally headed towards Torrance airport.

Surviving him are two brothers, David C. of Torrance and Reginald of Tulsa, Okla., and a sister, Mrs. Ina Jenkins of Union City, N. J. Also surviving are several nieces and nephews.

The Torrance police sped eastward on Pacific Coast Highway trying to keep the airplane in sight. Meanwhile the security officer at Torrance Airport was notified.

BOTH THE police unit and security officer followed the airplane to the takedown area where they found Beal sitting in the pilot's seat and a passenger in the other seat, they said.

EVA E. VANCE
Funeral services for Mrs. Eva Estelle Vance, 42, will be held tomorrow at 10 a.m. in the Stone and Myers Mortuary Chapel. The Rev. Honnette, pastor of the Rolling Hills Covenant Church, will officiate.

Beal said he had two beers about 12:30 but denied the flying incident. He insisted on taking any tests police wanted to give, officers said.

Later at Little Company of Mary Hospital he told an officer that he had been flying over Redondo Beach but that he remained about 500 feet away from shore.

Mrs. Vance, an inspector for the Honeywell Corp., died Monday in Bel Air. She made her home at 1472 W. 178th St., and had lived in the area for 22 years.

She is survived by a son, Alfred J. Gustin of Torrance; her mother, Mrs. Ethel Kagle; two brothers, Clarence and Albert McCulloch of Texas, and a sister, Miss Mamie Louise McCulloch of Texas.

Interment will be in Roosevelt Memorial Park.

Blood Bank Issues Call For August

Support of the Red Cross blood program is being asked of area residents during August when bloodmobiles are scheduled to make stops in Torrance.

The quarterly public visit of the Red Cross bloodmobile to the Elks Lodge, 1820 Abalone, is set for Aug. 20, from 2 to 6:30 p.m.

Appointments to give blood, according to blood program chairman, Mrs. Robert Orsini, should be made through the local Red Cross office, FA 8-0510 or TE 2-8321, or by calling the chairman at FA 8-0547.

Torrance-Lomita Red Cross Branch volunteers will staff the community blood collection as well as a collection set for Aug. 14 at Sears Training Hall in Del Amo Center, and an Aug. 26 blood bank at Mobil Oil.

"The need for blood takes no vacation," reminds the local chairman, Mrs. Orsini.

Did you know the people at 17400 Hawthorne are worth 650 million dollars?

It's true. But having all those assets behind them doesn't make the people at Great Western Savings uppity. On the contrary, they're down-to-earth, neighborly people.

And this neighborly way of doing business is what makes Great Western great.

Each of the eight offices operates independently. Each operates, first and foremost, for the community in which it is located.

The Great Western Savings office here, for instance, is exclusively concerned with the progress, the problems and the people of the community.

The people who work here at Great Western Savings take an active part in this community's civic affairs. They live here and belong to local organizations. They know what makes this community "tick."

And they know many of the people who live here by their first names.

This kind of good-neighbor policy enables them to serve you better.

So, the next time you're in the neighborhood, drop in and meet the people who hang their hat at Great Western Savings.
